

Development Manager at Bergstrom-Mahler Museum of Glass

The Development Manager is an important link to our public, our donors and our audiences. This is a fun and demanding role with high community visibility, and therefore, high integrity, responsibility and pursuit of excellence are essential qualifications along with the ability to work in a congenial and professional manner across the museum platform. The Development Manager will be responsible for planning a fundraising strategy and implementing it. Funding BMMOG's vision, mission and strategic plan is primary. This role provides the support of museum operations by building a philanthropic giving program including cultivating a strong donor base, membership, sponsorship, and grants. Bergstrom-Mahler Museum of Glass demonstrates core values that align with our mission to serve our visitors with warm friendly relationships, excellence, competence and integrity among others. The successful candidate will be personable and articulate to assist in funding all aspects of BMMOG's operations.

Noted as one of the top 5 glass museums in the United States, Bergstrom-Mahler Museum of Glass is located on the shore of scenic Lake Winnebago in Neenah, Wisconsin. Accredited by American Alliance of Museums since 1974, the Museum provides extraordinary glass experiences to spark fun, kindle creativity and illuminate learning for all. It has over 5,000 works in its collection including the largest public paperweight collection in the world in addition to contemporary glass, Germanic vessels and Victorian glass baskets. The Museum has a thriving schedule of exhibitions and programs, teaches over 100 studio classes a year, and has a Museum Shop that features glass art from around the globe. The Museum is admission free. The museum seeks to build its team with staff who maintain our standards of integrity, excellence and dedication to our guests and mission.

Salaried Exempt Full Time at $51,000 – 55,000/yr., some weekends and evenings.
